CANDYFLOSS
ROSÉ OF PINOT NOIR
STA. RITA HILLS

Traditionally approached and whole-cluster pressed, this delicious Rosé of Pinot Noir is from Sanford's beautiful La Rinconada Vineyard in the Sta. Rita Hills near Lompoc, California. Inspired by the great dry Rosés from Domaine Vacheron in Sancerre, this wine has mouth-watering citrus acidity, watermelon crunch and delicious summer fruits. The Candyfloss name comes from the wine's intense sweet aromas and refers to what the United Kingdom calls Cotton Candy. 100% grape juice. Native yeast. Zero additives. Aged in neutral wood.

The Holi Festival series of labels celebrates the annual festival of colors on the Indian sub-continent signifying thanks for a good harvest, the victory of good over evil, and a festive day to play and laugh and to forget and forgive.
